

FILM MAKING

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

This course introduces participants to film making, equipping them with the knowledge, skills and techniques which will enable them to create engaging films. Participants emerge from this course able to plan, produce footage, edit, and distribute films.

WHO SHOULD TAKE THIS COURSE?

This course is ideal for people who may from time to time need to create films, hobbyists, people who would like to pursue careers in film production, students, and film professionals who would like to add to their skill sets.

The course is designed for people who have used a camera before (anything from the camera on a smartphone to cameras intended for television broadcast). Apart from that, no other prior knowledge and experience is required.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

This course includes camera operations, storyboarding, scripting, production management, light, sound, editing, distribution and copyrights issues in film.

HOW SHOULD THE COURSE BE TAKEN?

This is an applied course. Participants should be encouraged to work through film production projects, applying the concepts and techniques which are presented in the course as they work through the course. Participants should ideally have access to a camera (even a smartphone camera), and a device on which they can edit film footage (even a smartphone) as they work through this course.
